About The Fridge

Theatre Glendon's Annual Fridge Festival is a bilingual showcase of student work. Any Glendon student is welcome to submit a piece – 30 minutes or less in length – they wish to produce in French, English or in both languages. Students fill all roles, from director or stage manager to actor or playwright. All shows are student conceived, driven and produced. It is a chance to experiment with new ideas, try your hand at a new skill or simply as a venue in which to show off your talents.

You can get involved by organizing your own piece or by signing up for what you're interested in which includes: directing, stage managing, lighting or sound design, acting or simply for crew calls or ushering on performance nights. The Fridge Festival is a chance for new students to get involved in Theatre Glendon or old hands to try something new.

He Dies In The End

Life is like a movie with an insultingly predictable ending, like running in front of parents who are gleefully holding their newborn and saying; "Look, I'll save you a lot of trouble, he dies in the end." A comedy of irrational fears and rationalizing comedy.

Written, Directed and Performed by Colin Sharpe

Stage Managed by Mat Grochal

Special Thanks - Fawcett Sharpe, David Sharpe, Kevin Friedberg.

Stopwatch Hearts

Three young women go out for a night of dancing at a rock club and get more than they expected when a man comes into their lives. The blending of love, betrayal and dancing make this one night they all won't forget... at least for the next thirty minutes.

Written and Directed By: Nadia Ouellet

Stage Manager: Katie Sagmeister

Starring:

Jacinto Wong

Katie Cleland

Aleya Pereira

Erin Cechetto

Genevieve Melanson

Choreography:

Rene Beauregard

Chantelle Morgan

Cutting

Holly is happy with her life. She has a successful salon, a supportive friend and the possibility of love with the perfect man. The only problem is, she lives in her head. This new play is a journey into the mind of holly and an abrupt exit from it.

Written and Directed by Aramenta Mileski

Assistant Directed by Rebecca Vandevelde

Stage Managed by Jessican Toal

Starring Brynn Laxton, Aramenta Mileski, John Isip and Alexandre St-Denis Yowfoo.

Flattered Fromage

Two sets of best friends qui se trouvent dans un café ne savent pas que leurs vies vont changer après qu'un secret est exposé. Inspiré par La Fontaine's Le corbeau et le renard, this short play takes a closer look at human weakness to flattery, served with a twist de la farce bilingue.

Heather B.

Writer/Director/SM/Sound Designer/Voix 4

Ericka Nicole Epstein - Voix 3, René(e)

Kimberly MacIsaac - Ashley

Geoff May - Voice 1/Jacques

Nadia Ouellet - Voice 2/Jessica

Paulo Santos - Writer/Assistant Director

Los Vendidos

Los Vendidos, written in 1967 by Luis Valdez, is a play that questions our notions of identity and how we perceive ourselves. It may take place in Mexico with Mexican characters, but the issues it brings up are universal. Sound conceited enough for you? Well it's not! The play is a uniquely original universal satirical relevant exuberant comedic comedy [...breath...] that attempts to both entertain and question. So, grab a shot of Tequila and don't forget to take off your sombreros! .....!Chihuahua!

Directed by and Starring

Jane Lanktree

John Isip

... with ...

Beth Robinson

Alex St-Denis Yowfoo

Staged Managed by Heather McRae

Designed by John Isip

Elodia

Like all of us, she is split into two parts....Elodia is a young girl who is largely misunderstood. By the end of the play both the Narrator and audience are faced with the reality that "one cannot expect to be perfectly understood by imperfect beings".

Stage Managed by Heather McRae
Assistant Stage Managed and Video by Heather

Type A

A Collectively Created Political Play
"It's so good, it hurts!
mirror, necklaces, government, high heels, sex, gangstas,
boas, capes, multicultural, lollipops, cloth, drugs,
hangers...
It's never quite what it seems."
